EXCITING ENCOUNTER WITH A WHALE. - A Provincetown correspondent of the Yarmouth Register writes:

I'wo "right" whales were discovered in the harbor about three o'clock Monday atternoon last. The cry of "there she blows!" was soon repeated along shore, directly followed by hasty manning of whale boats, and hurrying into them the weapons and gear for chase and capture. Some half dozen beates, equipped and manned with six men each, soon started in pursuit. After a chase of about three quarter's of an hour, the whales the while deftly eluding their pursuers, by soundings and irregular spoutings, a boat steered by Mr. George Smith and "headed" by Mr. Archibald McCurdy, both experienced whaleman, was run upon the broadside of one of them and McCurdy, to use his phrase, "sent his iron home to the seizing into her bilge.'

The scene now became exciting to the actors and hundreds of spectators who were witnessing the proceedings from the town. The wind at the time was blowing a gale from the north, and so cold that the spray froze as it flew.

The whale ran sharply now to windward, now to leeward, then following the shoal water back and forth along the west end of the harbor, the loose whale all the time keeping close company with his wounded mate, and the sea and spray enveloping the crew and at times almost obscuring the boat from view. The enraged whale in her frantic career poised upon her nese, and elevating her flukes twenty feet above water, would again and again strike fearfully for her invisible foe. Every attempt to haul up and lance was met by her flukes just clear of the boat. Thus the contest continued without much change of manœuvre or advantage gained by either antagonist, until about half past five P. M., when the whale succeeded in delivering the boat a slight blow with her tail, kuccking off the head of the stern post, breaking the steering oar into several pieces, and filling her to the thwarts with water. Another boat near at hand took her tow-line, but after a short time, the whale still fighting and preventing any near approach, and night setting in, the harpooner reluctantly, cut the line and let her go. Her wound is thought to be mortal, as she bled profusely, and it is expected she may be picked up in a few days in the bay.

The crew of the crippled boat on reaching the shore were completely encased in ice, enveloping even the head of Mr. Smith, who had lost his hat. Several of the other crews were badly trostbitten.

THE PEABODY INSTITUTE IN BALTIMORE. -It aprears from the address of the President of the Peabody Institute that there was expended in the support of the Institute for the last year the sum of $48.545.11. Included in this amount is the sum of $26,640 48, leaving $21,904.63 as the real expense for this period. Of these expenses there is an item of $8,910 42 paid as salaries, $2,124 50 to professors, $4,721,75 to orchestra, $3,200 to lecturers, aggregating $18,-956 67. The balance was expended in the purchase of musical instruments, rent of pianos, fuel, gas, stationery and contingencies, and the salary of the Provost. It does not appear that the efforts of the management to conduct the institution as a speculation has been very successful. In plain and purchased from the most reliable Ameriterms, it may be set down as a dead failure. For while we have the total cost of the lectures set down at $3,861.77, we find that the sum total of the amount received for admission is $1,028, leaving a deficit of $2,833.77, which would be a ruinous business to an ordinary showman, depending upon his profits for subsistence. The musical department exhibits the same condition of success; for while we have the total cost of the Academy of Music set down at $14,319. 69, we find that but $3,732.58 were received for admission to the concerts, and $5,443.75 received from pupils for tuition, leaving a deficiency in this department of $5,143.36.

Thus we find that out of a total expenditure for the year of $48,545.11, the Institute was reimbursed to the extent of only $10,204.33. Now what is the natural deduction from this exhibit? Simply that the Institute, conducted as a speculation, is an utter failure.

As at present managed, the Peabody Institute is of no service to any one except the managers and a lew of their aristocractic triends and we are sorry we cannot give our readers much hope for a better management in the tuture. - Baltimore Commercial.

HOW THE "GOVERNMENT" IS BLED,-"Mack," of the Cincinnati Enquirer, tells

"During the war, and while David Tod was the following story: Governor of Ohio, the latter was arrested on a warrant sworn out before Judge Van Trump, who was then a circuit or common pleas judge -1 forget which-at Laucaster. The arrest grew out of the Edson B. Olds ease, I think, and was based upon Tod's allowing a citizen of Ohio to be taken from the State without due process of law. At any rate, Tod had to appear before Judge Van Trump as defendant. The War Department here instantly authorized him to employ counsel, and an eminent lawyer of Lancaster was retained. The amount of service he rendered was very trifling. My in formant says he has known the same lawyer to do more work for $50 than he did in this case. Yet the United States Government had to pay him for 'services rendered' in the detence of PROFESSIONAL.

Consumption, &c.

Mentally.—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings, Averson to Society, Self Distrust Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced:

Thousands of persor of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emaciated, having a singular appearance. ance about the eyes, Cough, and Symptoms of Consumption. YOUNG MEN. Who have injured themselves by a certain practice, indulged in, a habit frequently learned from ovil companions, or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and, if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mine and body, should apply immediately. What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the pride of his parents, should be seatched from all prespects and enjoyments of life by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature, and indulging in a certain se cret habit. Such persons must, before contem-

MARRIAGE. reflect that a gound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial hap-piness. Indeed, without these the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage, the prospect hourly darkens to the view, the mind becomes shadowed with despair and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another becomes blighted with your own.

DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE. When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame or dread of discov-ery deters him from applying to those, will from education and respectability can alon befriend him, delaying till the constitutional syn.ptoms of this horrid disease make their apo symptoms of this horrid disease make their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, desiness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, isce and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity till at last the palate of the mouth or the lone of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commisseration, till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings, by sending him to "that Undiscovered Country tross whence no traveller returns."

Country from whence no traveller returns.

It is a MELANCHOLY FACT that thou sands fall victims to this terrible disease, owing to the unskilfulness of ignorant pretenders, who, by the use of that DEADLY POISON, MY R. CUBY, ruin the constitution and make this
